The Art of Storytelling In Public Speaking

Sat. May 2 • 10:45 am
Simcoe Room

You know basic speech structure. Let's go above and beyond into greatness -- let's learn storytelling speeches. This workshop will introduce you to the powerful storytelling structure and give you a chance to rework your favourite speeches.

Kemisha Newman holds a Master's degree in English and a certificate in Editing. She completed public speaking training at George Brown and the University of Toronto. She competed in the evaluation, tall tales and international speech contests last year. She has been a judge.
