

in-person workshops

Writing a Leadership Speech That Will Change the World

Sun. May 3 • 8:00 am
Verona Room

When Martin Luther King, Winston Churchill and other leaders gave speeches that changed the world, they used speech-writing strategies that inspired support for their vision. In this workshop we will discuss how to apply these strategies to your own speeches.

Elliott Katz has been a Toastmaster since 2000. In 2003, he helped start the Toast of the Town Club (8235). He was a speechwriter for the Ontario Minister of Finance. For the past 15 years, Elliott has been a volunteer speaker with the United Way Speakers Bureau. He is also the author of several books.